

Fill in the correct words:

SUNDAY DELICIOUS FIND DIFFERENT CROSS HIDE
FRIDAY SYMBOLIZE CHOCOLATE RELIGIOUS

In Great Britain people celebrate Easter in a _____ way then they do in the Czech Republic.

Instead of people painting real eggs, Easter in Great Britain is connected with _____ eggs that parents _____ for their children around the house and the garden on Easter Sunday. The children must _____ the eggs and then they can eat them.

For the British people Easter is a very _____ holiday. Many people go to church on Easter _____. Before that, on Good _____, many people make hot cross buns, sweet and _____ buns that are filled with dried fruit and spices and marked with a _____ to _____ the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

True or false?

		TRUE	FALSE
1.	Czech people and British people celebrate Easter in the same way. ⇒
2.	Czech people and British people celebrate Easter in a different way. ⇒
3.	Children must find chocolate eggs around the house and garden. ⇒
4.	Children must hide chocolate eggs around the house and garden. ⇒
5.	People eat chocolate eggs on Easter Sunday. ⇒
6.	People eat chocolate eggs on Good Friday. ⇒
7.	People eat hot cross buns on Easter Sunday. ⇒
8.	People eat hot cross buns on Good Friday. ⇒		